ERZBERGER SEEKS TO SAVE KAISER FROM PUNISHMENT

Asks Allies to Renounce Plan to Prosecute Wilhelm.

ALSO WANTS INDEMNITY LIMITED TO 25 MILLIONS

Asks Allies If Germany Will Be Admitted to Nations League.

Berlin, Friday, June 20.—Mathias Erzberger, mentioned as probable minister of the new German peace government is said to have sent a note to Premier Clemenceau as president of the peace conference asking whether the allies will agree to immediate admission of Germany to the league of nations.

Herr Erzberger also desires to know if the powers will consent to the limitation of Germany's indemnity to 100,000,000 gold marks and renounce their effort to have former emperor William surrendered.

The note does not say whether Germany will sign the peace treaty but the inference seems clear that she would if these concessions were made.

HUNS SEND NOTE ON REPARATIONS

Paris, June 21.—The council of four of the peace conference received a note today from the German peace delegation, asking if Premier Clemenceau's note claiming the reparations clauses of the peace treaty was a binding part of the treaty and having the same force as the treaty itself.

The council at its morning session considered this note, calling in its experts on the question of reparation. Baron Sannino, the Italian foreign minister was present.

Before receipt of the German note the council had resumed consideration of the uncompleted portion of the Austrian treaty.

According to a Berlin dispatch Friday night, the German note to the peace conference cites 12 instances in which the covering note of the allied reply to the Germans announced concessions which are not contained in the altered text of the peace treaty. The allies are asked, the dispatch added, how far they bind themselves to the concessions and written confirmation is requested that the contents of the covering note and the memorandum on these points form part of the new peace offer.

BELIEVE C. OF C. MEMBERSHIP WILL REACH THOUSAND

More Than 670 Have Been Signed and Many Good Prospects Remain to Be Approached.

With the work of the special committee of the enlarged Chamber of Commerce unfinished and consequently some of the firms which take out a large number of memberships in the Chamber of Commerce yet to be reported, and with other memberships being mailed in, and others being brought in by teams, and, with a total of 670 memberships reported in during the afternoon, it looked late yesterday that the total number of memberships would top the 800 mark easily and it is confidently believed that the number will reach 1000 by the end of the month. The workers are still very much on the job, unearthing those that have been out of the city.

That the movement was well received by the public was evidenced by the number of volunteer memberships. All through the campaign the workers were repeatedly given memberships without the asking, and many of the volunteer members came to the offices of the Chamber and took away their membership receipt.

"I have never seen such a display of enthusiasm," declared J. S. Herzog, president of the C. of C. "If we can keep up that spirit and we will, I am sure it will not be a very long time before Newark will take a place in the sun that will be the envy of all cities in Ohio. We must now put forth all our energies in behalf of the definite objects that the membership has in mind. We have constantly urged the teams to leave the prospect with a pleasant taste, and believe that this has been done as I have not heard of any bitter feeling toward anyone since the campaign began."

"We met a public spirited bunch of prospects," said O. J. Barnes, commander of the Buckeye division. "Hence the success of the campaign. The bread thrown upon the waters during the campaign will return in a better Newark in not many days hence."

"What I say now matters little but what the workers did will mean much to Newark on the future, if the same spirit is kept going," declared John Chilcote, commander of the Rainbows. "I have never spent my time to a better cause," said Frank Hall, commander of the Liberty Bell Division. "My wish is that we will always appreciate that to work for our community is essential to its growth."

"It was an unusual display of community spirit," according to George M. Fenberg, one of the leading team captains. "The prospects wanted membership and all we had to do was find 'em."

U. S. MAY THROW FIGHTING FORCE OVER RIO GRANDE

First Hostile Move By Villa Will Bring Primitive Action.

MILITARY MEN DO NOT BELIEVE VILLA HAS ABANDONED PLANS

Carranza's Army Small and Loyalty of Officers Is Doubtful.

Washington, June 21.—Recent developments along the southern border and within Mexico itself, it was learned officially today, has brought a radical change in the attitude of this government toward Mexico. It can be stated on positive authority that "watchful waiting" has been discarded for "watchful preparedness."

The war department has perfected plans to throw a punitive expedition of adequate strength across the Rio Grande the moment official word is received of reprisals on the part of Villa for the Juarez incident, or in case of other contingencies tending to bring the Mexican situation again to a stage approaching the crisis of last Sunday. Orders for the advance of this column, however, it was said, would be accompanied by instructions for the military occupation of territory necessary to insure the safety of the expedition and absolute protection of the border through the creation of a neutral zone south of the line.

Further movement of the expedition would depend entirely on subsequent developments.

Military observers here place little credence in the reports that Villa has abandoned his offensive to the north. Economic as well as military necessity, it was pointed out, call for the elimination of the Carranza garrisons now stationed on the flanks of the territory Villa now controls and for possession of a principal frontier entry port, which would give the rebel chieftain fresh sinews of war in the shape of customs duties and equipment.

Although three federal generals are now operating against Villa in northern Mexico, confidential reports to the war department are not optimistic regarding the success of the Carranzist forces there while withdrawal of badly needed troops from the south, it is expected, will be followed by fresh incursions of the Felicistas forces at the very gates of the capital. The Carranza military establishment, according to official reports filed here actually includes less than 40 per cent of its paper strength of 160,0000 and its military value is decreased by the doubtful loyalty of some of the high officers and the fact that hundreds of soldiers were forcibly recruited.

In the rebel factions of which there are said to be seben opposing Carranza, Villa is reported to be the strongest. Angeles is credited in official circles as "undoubtedly the most skilful military leaders of the Rio Grande."

The Villistas are conservatively estimated to number 10,000, equipped with fairly modern arms, including cannon up to 105 milimeters in caliber.

And so is the situation faced by Carranza that he is said to be bending every effort to secure the direct support of the United States in maintaining his power. This, according to officials here, accounts for the ease with which the Juarez incident was closed. One of the principal purposes of the recent visit to Washington of General Angular, son-in-law of the president, and a member of his cabinet, it is declaredfi, was to secure this support by the United States. General Angular was supposed, according to report, to settle oil questions and other matters that have caused dissension between the countries.

SERBIA IS FREED FROM BLAME FOR SERAJEVO CRIME

Kaiser Knew Before He Ordered War, That Serb Government Was Not Responsible.

Berne, Friday, June 20.—(French Wireless)—An official telegram to the Vienna foreign office exonerating Serbia of the responsibility for the Serajevo murder has been publishe dby Maximillian Harden in the Berlin Zukunft, as a part of the mass of evidence to show Germany's responsibility for the war.

This telegram, dated Serajevo, July 13, 1914, states plainly that the Serbian government against which no evil hopes can be produced, has no responsibility for the murder.

This document, Herr Harden said, was cancelled and 10 days later the ultimatum to Serbia was presented. In addition, he said, seven days before it was drafted the Potsdam war council at Berlin had arranged a plan of action in anticipation of Russia's intervention.

Von Bethmann Hollweg may have forgotten it," Herr Harden says, "but this decision was taken and registered on July 5 before the kaiser left for the north, and he who had to choose between war and peace had already chosen war. A hundred million individuals were thus doomed."

PRESBYTERIANS PROTEST FIGHT

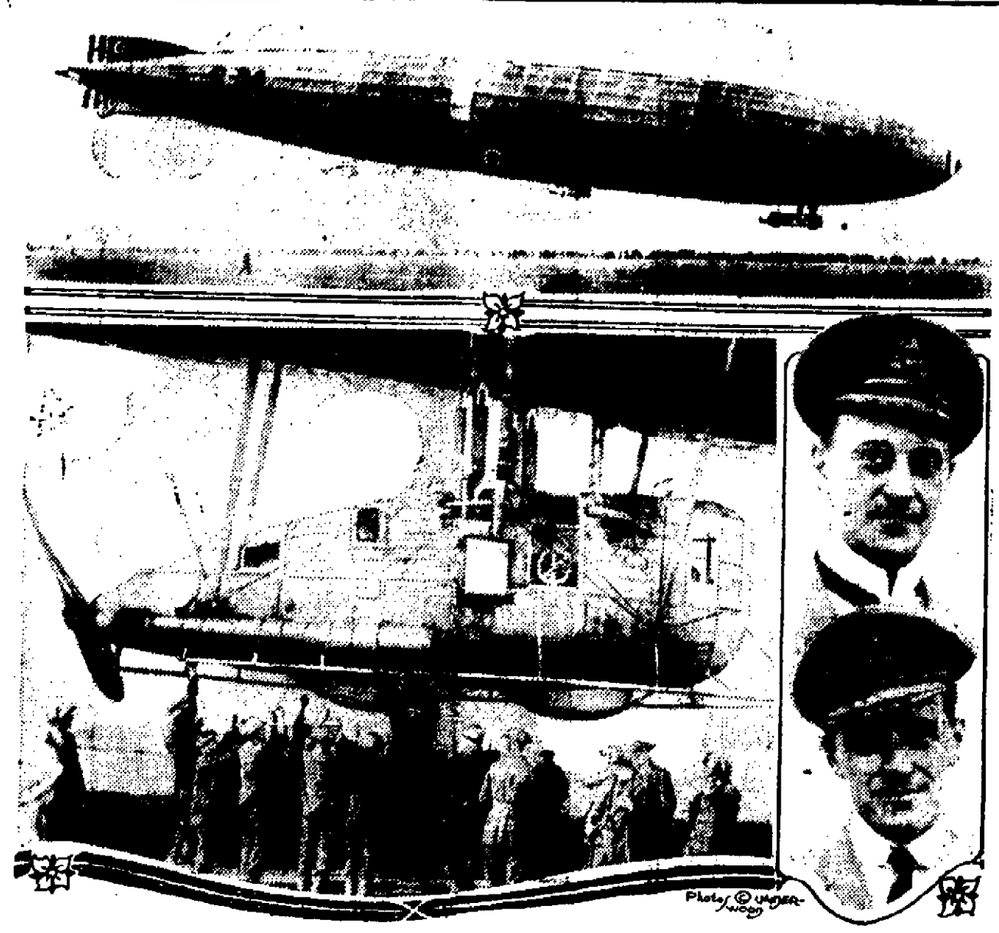
New York, June 21 (Exec. state superintendent of the Presbyterian board of home missions urged in telegrams sent out from the board's headquarters to send messages immediately to congress asking that Governor Cox of Ohio be asked to forbid "desecration" of the national holiday through the holding of the Willard Dempsey fight July 4.

GIANT BRITISH DIRIGIBLE READY FOR ATLANTIC FLIGHT



British dirigible R-34, which will attempt trans-Atlantic flight. Close-up of one of three "gondolas" hung under bag, and Lieut. Col. Luccas, upper, and Major Fuller, who are in New York arranging for arrival in U. S. of dirigible.

Word that the British dirigible R-34 has started on its attempt to cross the Atlantic ocean to America from England is expected hourly. The giant dirigible is ready for the flight. According to recent reports the big ship may attempt to fly to the U. S. and back without landing in this country, as it can carry enough supplies to make the round trip. This type of dirigible originally was designed for bombing German cities. One interesting feature of the construction of the ship is a passageway through the gas bag by which the members of the crew can go from one of the suspended "gondolas" to another. A ladder leads up to the passageway from each bag. The ladder can be seen in the photo of one of the gondolas. The crew of the ship totals thirty-three men.

RUSH WORK ON REFINERY AT HEATH; WILL BE OPERATING BY CHRISTMAS

Capacity Will Be 3000 Barrels Daily and All By-Products of Petroleum Will Be Manufactured—More Help Needed to Keep Up With Schedule.

The big refinery of the Ohio Cities Gas company at Heath (Central City) just west of Newark, will be in operation by Christmas, according to R. E. Young who has taken charge of the construction work. Young arrived in Newark a short time ago from Oklahoma.

The plant will mean an outlay of $3,500,000 by the company and the by-products will be gasolene, kerosene, gasolene oil, wax distillate and flux oil. The company will have its own electrical plant for lighting and power purposes, will have a completely equipped machine shop, and later car repair shops and boiler shops will be installed. An effort is being made to have the Ohio Electric give a 20 minute car service to Heath, which is about a half a mile from the plant.

The temporary ware house has been completed offices have been installed for the construction superintendents and George B. Crumrine, superintendent for the Rust Engineering company of Pittsburgh, which has the contract for the refinery, is on hand. He has with him A. W. Keenan, assistant superintendent, J. B. McCarty, carpenter foreman, and W. B. Stathers, engineer, of Pittsburgh. The refinery will cover an area of 135 acres.

Foreseeing future possibilities and determining the desirability of land in the vicinity of Central City, R. C. Dawes, president of the Ohio Cities Gas company purchased the first part of the present site four years ago.

The name of Central City has been changed to Heath, for the secretary and treasurer of the company F. S. Heath, who has been instrumental in making the company a success.

The refinery is being built under the direction of C. B. Watson, assistant to President Dawes. The capacity of the plant will start with 3000 barrels of crude oil a day. At the outset the by-products will be gasolene, kerosene, gasolene oil, wax distillate, and flux oil. Later additions will be made to the plant, and in connection with these products the company will manufacture all kinds of lubricating oils, wax and grease. It is stated by the company that these products will compete with anything on the market.

The contract for the construction of the buildings and the foundations have been awarded to the Rust Engineering company and the contract for steel tanks has been let to the Phoenix Boiler & Plate company. The plant outlay will consist of seven stills, 9 feet 6 inches by 36 feet. These will be hooked up for continuous operation. There will be three steam gasoline stills 9 feet 6 inches by 40 feet and one condenser box 50 by 50 by 10, one 30 by 50 by 10 and one 20 by 50 by 10.

One of the features of the construction is the elevated railroad, which runs parallel to the T. & O. C. tracks. It is designated as the unloading track, for unloading coal and loading cinders. It is of re-enforced concrete and under the tracks are coal bins, where the coal may be dropped. It fronts the stills and boiler house.

Adjoining the elevated tracks are two ash hoppers 15 by 13 by 53 feet high.

PURSE SNATCHERS GET $30 IN CASH

Two Youths Escape With Leather Bag Carried By Woman Friday Night.

Miss Caroline Richards, representing the American Civic Reform Union and stopping in West Church street, had her purse snatched last night at the alley adjoining the Central school building.

Miss Richards was returning to her home about 10 o'clock when two young men came up back of her. She was carrying a large leather bag. They grabbed this from her hand and darted up the alley. Miss Richards notified the police and stated the thieves seemed to be boys between 16 and 18 years of age.

The bag contained money belonging to Miss Richards and the money belonging to the company she represents. Later Harry Baker entering the alley in the rear of his home in North Fifth street stumbled over the bag and turned it in at police headquarters. In it was found about $9 belonging to Miss Richards and $4 of the company's money. The thieves had secured between $25 and $30 belonging to the company, but overlooked the smaller amounts.

SOLICITOR THINKS COUNCIL WILL NOT GRANT INCREASE

Declares That Strikers and Co. Officials Should Adjust Differences Among Themselves.

This is the 6th day since the men of the Newark Telephone company have been on strike and the management of the company is giving fairly good service under the circumstances but things are going out of commission rapidly and in all probability it will be some time until the strike is settled.

MUELLER UNABLE TO GET CABINET; ANOTHER TRIES IT

FORMER PRESIDENT OF NATIONAL ASSEMBLY ATTEMPTS TO SELECT GOVERNMENT AMERICAN ARMY LEARNS.

ALL DAY CONFERENCES FAIL TO PRODUCE COALITION MINISTRY

Weimar Assembly Rapidly Being Won Over to Favoring Signature of Treaty—Berlin Editor Says Refusal to Sign is Hardly Possible.

Paris, June 21.—Dispatches received over the American military wire into Germany early this afternoon states that Herr Mueller, having failed to form a cabinet, Dr. Eduard David, former president of the national assembly, had been asked to assume the task.

EFFORT IS POSTPONED

Berlin, Friday, June 20.—After futile all-day conferences with the various party factions the government this evening declared itself unable to pick a new cabinet and decided to postpone the effort for 48 hours.

EBERT PICKS MUELLER

Paris, June 21.—President Ebert has requested Herman Mueller, majority Socialist leader, to form a new German cabinet, according to advices received by the American peace delegation.

Mathias Erzberger probably will head the German peace delegation, the advices indicate. The opposition attitude of the Democrats and German Nationalists on the question of the treaty probably will exclude Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau and Count Bernstorff from the government.

The German provincial press is strongly urging the speedy signing of the treaty.

Berlin advices to the American delegation summarizing the situation in Germany up to midnight show the sentiment throughout Germany to be in favor of accepting the peace terms. The advices cover Leipsiz, Dresden, Chemnitz, and other representative regions.

Geographically analysis indicate that all the southern German states are in favor of the acceptance of the treaty, while the Prussian regions are maintaining some opposition.

DAVID PROBABLY WILL HEAD PEACE DELEGATES

Weimar, Friday, June 20.—It looks more and more as if Edward David would be the successor, not only of Philipp Scheidemann, the chancellor, but of Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the foregn minister. His occupation of both offices will probably be for only a short time, but he is accustomed to that having held the position as president of the national assembly for a brief period, having been supplanted by Klonstantin Fehrenbach. The cabinet held a meeting this morning and gathered for another session this afternoon, party leaders being present at the second sitting. It is believed Germany will ask the entente for an extension of the time limit to make the settlement of the cabinet crisis.

General Groener, former Prussian war minister and sucressor to Field Marshal von Hindenburg as chief of the German general staff, arrived here from eastern Germany yesterday, and conferred with the members of the cabinet about the Polish situation and the eastern front. He reported that West Prussia, East Prussia, and Silesia, have determined to form an independent state free from Prussia and Germany if any portions of those states are allowed to go to Poland. He said the inhabitants of the three states are bitter at Germany claiming that she had "deserted them and swapped and bartered away portions of those states for the sake of others."

The government says it cannot see where any bartering enters into the situation, since it got nothing in return in dealing with the allies. Fighting with the Poles is said to be certain, forces of the Independent Noske guards or the German imperial troops being the participants.

REFUSAL IS UNLIKELY TAGBLATT EDITOR SAYS

Berlin, Thursday, June 19.—Theodor Wolff, editor in chief of the Tageblatt, has telephoned that newspaper from Weimar that those in favor of signing the treaty are so active and numerous among the majority Socialists and the Clericalist that refusal to sign the terms is hardly possible. Members of the national assembly who take this stand, Herr Wolff said, are being given active support by several majority Socialist members of the cabinet who are now openly urging the appointment of Matthias Erzberger to head the new cabinet.

Herr Wolff states that the solution now being sought will be in the nature of a compromise. He believes that Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau the foreign minister can hardly be expected to stay if the compromise presents too great a concession to the elements now [illegible].

HUN ENVOYS HAVE PEACE DINNER SERVED

The 82 attaches of the German peace delegation remaining here have been kept informed of developments in Germany by press telegrams received by correspondents of German parties in Versailles. They state events are favorable to signing the peace treaty and receiving news from Germany with manifest joy. A special dinner was ordered for them tonight with "peace champagne."

SHERMAN FEARS PAPAL INFLUENCE IN WORLD LEAGUE

Points Out That Majority of Members of League Are Catholic Nations.

Washington, June 21.—A warning that the League of Nations may end the separation of church and state and bring the civilized world under the domination of the vatican was given by the senate yesterday by Senator Sherman, Republican, of Illinois, who declared the Roman Catholic church would be represented in the league assembly by 24 votes out of 45.

"From an early age," said the Illinois senator, "the occupants of the vatican have believed in the inherited right of papal authority to administer civil government. It is with the utmost regret I fail to find recorded in the course of papal claims of later days any renunciation or disavowal of the doctrines.

"Of the original 32 member nations, signatories to the proposed league, 16 are Christian nations and four are of other faiths. Of these 28 Christian nations, 17 are Catholic nations, either a majority or an overwhelming preponderance of the population being of that religious faith, and 11 are protestant. The Catholic members are Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, Cuba, Ecquador, France, Guatamala, Haiti, Honduras, Italy, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Uruguar and Czecho-Slovakia. The 17 nations will be represented in the league in all human probability by Catholic delegates.

"What church represents in its membership either a majority or almost an entirety of the several populations. The sway over these people and their implicit faith in the infallibility of the head of this great religious organization is supreme. That is a power for good. I cheerfully bear witness and above all, to its steady opposition to a socialistic state, disorder and Bolshevism in its various forms and manifestations.

"But the head of the church proclaims and teaches his infallibility. The separation of the church and state might continue. The peril lies in the claim of papal power never abjured, never disavowed. The temptation to enforce that belief might be all down every barrier built up by centuries of struggle and sacrifice.

"Shall the United States commit itself to the mercy of a power from which our ancestors delivered us, shall we risk ourselves and our posterity in the toils we have escaped. Through their wisdoms and their warnings they left us to guide us, in the duties and perils of our generation. The covenant of the League of Nations bears within its folds a repressive power more fatal and insidious than a Prussian helmet, more dangerous than future war."

Chicago, June 21—The commercial telegraph strike, according to a statement from strike headquarters yesterday, will continue as long as "the Wilson administration stands on record as denying us the right to which President Wilson says all workers are entitled."

The statement charged the telegraph companies attempted to take advantage "of our awaiting action by the American Federation of Labor by circulating false reports about desertions from our ranks and that the strike would soon be over."

COX SCORES SOLONS ON FIGHT ATTITUDE

Columbus, June 21. With reference to the situation affecting the Willard Dempsey contest, Governor Cox today made the following statement:

"The propaganda begun a short time ago under political auspices was based upon such a deliberate attempt to deceive the public that it would seem proper for me to give the facts. Under the laws of this state, and their interpretation by the courts, boxing contests are legalized under direction of local municipal authorities. Several attempts within the past few weeks were made in the Ohio legislature to change existing statute on the subject, but without result. Failing in this, one branch of the legislature passed a resolution requesting me to interfere with the contest. In other words, after the assembly itself refused to give me legal authority, one branch of it urged me to proceed with out right. Dictatorship has not even prospered in Russia, and the executive policy of Ohio will keep within the laws of the common wealth so long as I am governor.

"Boxing contests are conducted in at least a dozen of our largest cities. During the winter they were held within a square of the legislature halls in Columbus, and were attended in goodly numbers by members of the legislature. If the law is changed, giving me the right of interference, it will be exercised but I shall meet hypocrisy with usurpation of power."

An ARTCRAFT Picture

Shark comes to love a beautiful girl from the east, and how he follows her up the Great White Trail, in Alaska, where he rescues her from a "buzzard of the north," proves his courage and wins her love. It is an unusually thrilling picture, finely produced and has an exceptionally brilliant cast of screen players. The last showings are seen today together with Pathe News.

"Pretty Smooth."

All the tricks of the trade, and even the jargon used by professional criminals, have been acquired by Miss Priscilla Dean; famous as the portrayer of crook parts in photodrama, during her conscientious study of underworld methods which have made her work in past "crook" successes ring true to the life they depict. Not that Miss Dean ever expects to make any practical use of her knowledge except for the purpose it is now serving, but she goes on the theory that everything must be well done, even if it is the duty of picturing a notorious cracks woman or a feminine yeggman.

Miss Dean will be seen at the Auditorium Theatre Sunday in the latest Universal release, "Pretty Smooth."

This together with a comedy, also Pathe News make up a most pleasing program.

"The Village Chestnut."

When a bug came sailing out of the ethereal blue and landed on the back of a school pupil when she was holding a ladder for the teacher who was reparing a leaky lamp, excitement and thrills galore ensued. The pupil released her hold, the ladder came down, leaving the teacher hanging to the chandelier.

This might have been forgiven, but just at that moment, the members of the school board arrived and several of them observed the pretty pupil as she searched for the bug which was on an exploration of her spine. What happened after that is shown with farcical effect in the new Paramount-Mack Sennett comedy, "The Village Chestnut" which will be shown at the Auditorium Sunday. This comedy is seen at the Alhambra Monday.

"The End of the Road."

Through request from The Public Health Department of The United States Government, Mgr. Fenberg brings to the Auditorium for a three day screening, "The End of the Road"

THE END OF THE ROAD—Produced for War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities, Personally Directed by EH Griffith

a motion picture prepared by the war department commission on training camp activities as a part of the social hygienne campaign. It handles certain social and sex problems and their particular relation to women.

The story was conceived and written by Katherine Bement Davis, former commioner of correction in New York city, and now director of the section of woman's work of the social hygiene division. Edward H. Griffith, a former Cleveland newspaper man, produced the picture under the supervision of the surgeon general of the army.

The fundamental idea of the film is educational. Throughout, the effort has been made to make disease appear to be, as it actually is in real life, the result of loose living, ignorance, thoughtlessness and irresponsibility.

This production is just getting showings in Ohio, being now on display at the Euclid Opera House, Cleveland, at advanced prices and drawing capacity crowds. Mgr. Fenberg has arranged with the owners for a schedule of prices that is within reach of all. No children will be admitted unless their parents are with them.

"Woman."

The much-advertised and greatly discussed motion picture "Woman" will be seen at Mgr. Fenberg's Auditorium for three days beginning next Thursday. "Woman" is a seven-part picture which was made by Maurice Tourneur, director of Mary Pickford in "The Poor Little Rich Girl," "The Whip," "The Blue Bird" and many other wonderful pictures.

But in "Woman" Mr. Tourneur seemed to have reached the climax of his great work. Into "Woman" he has put all his artistic ability. The idea for the production came to Mr. Tourneur some years ago upon reading George Moore's "My Dead Wife," who says that the legitimate occupation of a man's mind is woman.

"Woman" is divided into a prologue, five episodes and epilogue. The prologue is modern, showing a philosopher of 1919 moralizing upon women. His mind flashes back through the history and the five episodes are unfolded. The first deals with Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden. The second moves to Rome, with the Emperor Claudius the victim of the siren mistress, of Messalina. The third interlude revolves around the famous medival legend of Heloise and the monk, Abelard. The fourth is fanciful, the Brittany love lyric of a fisher lad and a mermaid. The fifth takes place during the war. Then the story switches back to modern days, when the philosopher of the prologue discovers that the great European war has revolutionized modern woman.

ALHAMBRA.

Vodavil.

Spanish's Vodavil at the Alhambra is a hit. The five acts that were shown last Wednesday and Thursday made so good, that the management has decided to continue vaudeville of that type at that theatre each week hereafter and on Wednesday and Thursday in connection with other features movie patrons will be entertained by five big time vaudeville acts on the screen. The following acts are seen: Tetsuwari Japs, clever acrobats; La Zelle Sisters, dancers; Klass Novelty Trained Goats; A Modern Cabaret with 20 beautiful girls and Albers Polar Bears, late features Ringling Brothers' circus.

"Day Dreams."

Large and appreciative crowds saw magnetic Madge Kennedy, in her latest Goldwyn picture, "Day Dreams" written for her by Cosmo Hamilton.

Madge Kennedy is Primrose, a goose girl, whose obsession is that some day her white knight, of whom she has always dreamed, will come and take her to his castle over the sea. In a village close by lives George Graham, a man of wealth, who loves Primrose, but she spurns his offer of marriage with "I can never marry you. I would be untrue to my knight." To awaken her from her dream Graham induces Dan O'Hara to play the part of her white knight. To save a brother from prosecution at the hands of Graham, Dan is compelled to accept the repellant task.

So Dan comes to Primrose as her white knight. Her dream has come true. "But where's your plume?" she asks. And Dan, well-tutored by Graham, replies "Sunk, princess—sunk by the cruel, dark pirates of the Spanish Main, I alone escaped." This seems to satisfy Primrose. The white knight makes ready to take Primrose aboard his galleon, fitted out by Graham, to his castle, which is Graham's house converted for the occasion. Later Primrose boards the vessel with Dan and they set sail.

It is seen today for the last times together with the Prizma, "Birds and Flowers", also the comedy, "His Shattered Career. Tomorrow Viola Dana comes.

WOMEN POINT THE WAY.

The women of Newark have just given a practical demonstration of their ability to do effective organization work. In a short, snappy drive they obtained War Savings Stamp pledges amounting to more than $106,000, thereby bringing Licking county nearer its goal and making it possible for this county to capture the state prize, a handsome Victory memorial shaft that will be awarded by the Vermont granite manufacturers to that Ohio county which sells the largest percentage of its War Saving Stamp quota during the months of June, July and August.

On June 1st Licking county was among the leaders of the state. During the past week the stamp sales have advanced this county's standing. There is no doubt that this county can win the big prize if the people go after it. The prompt purchase of a single War Savings Stamp by every person in Licking county would put Licking county within a short distance of the goal.

The Newark women have demonstrated the fact that the people will buy W. S. S., if they are solicited and they have pointed the way to success in the rural community where the women are now organizing for a stamp drive.

Licking county has a perfect war record up to this time. The only remaining work is to subscribe the county's quota of W. S. S., the world's best investment, and if the quota is taken promptly, it is highly probable that the Victory shaft will come to this county. It is a prize worth striving for. To win it will put Licking county in first place in the state. The Newark women through their patriotic effort this week have pointed the way to success. Let's carry on and win Buy War Savings Stamps now.

PRESIDENT WILSON.

When the peace negotiations began, many people had the idea that Mr. Wilson leaned toward what was called a "soft peace." They said the allies had "won the war, but were going to lose the peace," and the fault would be Wilson's.

Now a very considerable element is berating Mr. Wilson with the greatest intensity, because, as they claim, he has assented to a "hard peace." They assert he has agreed to terms that will hold the Germans in slavery for a generation, and which will breed undying hatred and more wars.

When a man is attacked from the two extremes of any controversy, it is pretty good proof that he has followed a middle road course, and has held pretty nearly the golden mean. The mass of the people will not be deluded by the notion that the Germans are being unmercifully treated. Their fate is far more tolerable than the terms they imposed upon the prostrate French and Belgians.

Also, some months ago it was being constantly said that Mr. Wilson attempted to dictate terms to Europe and set himself up as boss of the world. Again the facts falsify these attacks. Close readers of the dispatches for the last three weeks have seen it stated several times, that Mr. Wilson was letting George and Clemenceau reach the final adjustments as something best left to the statesmen of Europe. This shows good sense.

Before long the heat of partisanship and the dreams of visionaries will be set aside by the sober second thought of the people. Mr. Wilson is going to get credit for his large share in a settlement that is essentially just. It has meted out retribution to the Germans that is fully called for by the enormity of the crimes, and which will teach a lesson for all time. Yet it is not so drastic as to savor of revenge. To attain this golden mean, in a settlement so fraught with difficulties and perplexities, has called for statesmanship of a high order.

DAYLIGHT SAVING REPEALED.

(Ohio State Journal.)

The majority of city dwellers, we think, are disposed to regret Congress' repeal of the daylight-saving law, which will be an accomplished fact as soon as the bills come out of conference. City people, as a rule, have liked the lengthening of the evenings, which makes their time for daylight recreation after the day's work last another hour. In the country the hostility to the law has been general and often bitter. The farmers feel that they had to get up plenty early enough in the morning under the old time and that the addition of an hour before dark merely keeps them working that much longer when they ought to be resting. Another objection raised by the farmers, not particularly worthy but perfectly human, is that the extra hour gives city gardeners too much time to cultivate back yards and raise vegetables in competition with the products of the farm. The farmers have had their way with Congress, as they usually do, and Oct. 26 we must all go back to the old time to stay.

WATCH THE FUGITIVE KAISER.

(New York Herald.)

As Napoleon at Elba was advised of the progress of the 1815 Peace Conference at Vienna, so the former Kaiser is fully cognizant of the 1919 proceedings at Versailles. Napoleon broke loose, entered Paris at the head of an army and surprised the peacemakers.

The former Kaiser probably does not contemplate such a dramatic stroke, but it is clear that he does intend to return to Germany, and, if possible, be restored to power, or at least to a portion of his former power.

The Ebert Government, sustained at the Socialist Convention in Weimar, probably will sign the treaty. The men at the head of that Government conceal their real feelings and their unconquerable love of Prussianism beneath a cloak of conservative Socialism and are prepared to welcome Wilhelm with open arms. Scheidemann voted for war and supported the Kaiser. Noske, Minister of National Defense in the present Government, is an Imperialist, not a "democrat." Already monarchical demonstrations have taken place in different parts of Germany.

Watch the fugitive Kaiser! Unless all signs fail he soon will be back in Berlin—as "President" of the new "Republic," with the Junkers and the Imperialists in the saddle.

OLD ISSUES BACK.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

Though Ohio voted dry last year and has since signified its approval of the federal dry amendment, though nation wide war time prohibition takes effect in a week and a half and permanent prohibition becomes effective at the end of the present year, voters of Ohio are to be asked to vote on the issue again in November, according to present plans. In fact, the issue is likely to be presented in several forms at the November election.

Wet interests propose to ask for a state constitutional amendment repealing the dry amendment written into the organic law last year. They ask also that the people veto the action of the legislature in ratifying the federal amendment. Further, they want written into the constitution a provision defining beverages that contain 2.75 per cent of alcohol as non-intoxicating.

Here are three proposals backed by liberal interests which the people of Ohio women as well as men, on all probability are to be asked to decide in November if present plans be carried out. In the case of the first two proposals the vote will decide whether or not Ohio must what it is on record as voted last November to brand Satan from the commonwealth. The per cent of alcohol proposal is of one what another kind. Neither courts, legislatures nor people are yet prepared to say what percentage of alcohol is "intoxicating."

The Advocate's MELTING-POT

It is no more possible for an idle man to keep together a certain stock of knowledge, than it is possible to keep together a stock of ice exposed to the meridian sun. It was an offle pretty nite an' the stars were a twinklin' like di'mon's. They was one bunch that was particular brite an' Maggie Zeen pointed to it an' says she, "Look at that cluster o' stars. I never seen none no briter," she says. "I wonder what's the name of 'em," she says. "That," says Doc, "is Orion," he says. "O'Ryan!" broke in Uncle Billy, "Lord love you, Doc, you don't say!" says he. "I've been a-hopin' all day that Jim had went where I was afeared he h'adn't," he says.

Did You Know

That this is the first day of summer? It is also the longest day in the year, the sun rising at 5:23 and setting at 8:40, central time with the daylight saving hour added. It is only in the temperate parts of the globe that the year is divided into four seasons. In the Arctic and Antarctic regions the natural division of the year is simply into winter and summer. Within the tropics the sun's rays have at no time so much obliquity as to make one part of the year very sensibly colder than another.

Blest Be the Tie.

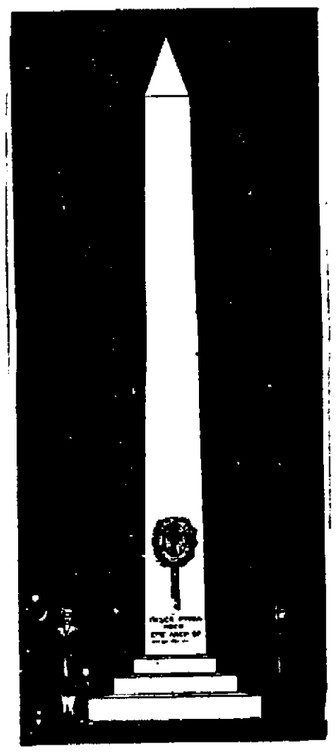
"Is your wife tongue-tied?" queried we
Of Adoniram Bly;
He answered, "Well, her tongue, you see,
Is long enough to tie."
—Newark Advocate.

Yes, my wife's tongue, believe me Mike,
Is tied square in the middle,
And it will work from both ends like
The bow upon a fiddle.

Sometimes it's tone is dreamy,
Oily, smooth and rather sleek,
Then again its coarse and screamy
Like a siren whistle's shriek.

Oh unceasing, like the ocean,
It runs on thru' endless days,
And it has perpetual motion
Beaten more than forty ways.
—I. G.

LICKING COUNTY HAS GOOD CHANCE TO WIN THIS PRIZE



Here it is—the $10,000 Victory shaft, 30 feet high made of Barre granite. It is to be sent by the Vermont manufacturers to that Ohio county which sells the largest percentage of its 1919 share of War Savings Stamps in June, July and August. Licking county stands a most excellent chance to win it. On June 1 our position was eleventh among the 88 counties and since June 1st this county has made a big gain. Buy W. S. S. now and induce others to do so. This will put this county in the perfect war record class and will probably bring the $10,000 prize to this community. It's a prize worth working for and one that can be won by proper effort.

Here Lies One Secret of Cheney Tones

THE CHENEY in the world of phonographs is like a prima donna in the world of singers—it holds the secret of serenely pure, natural tones. It is an artistic triumph, so obvious that you will recognize it immediately.

The CHENEY PHONOGRAPH

In the severest tests of tone that you can give—full orchestra or piano records or solos with orchestra accompaniment, the Cheney preserves the natural balance of parts—it puts the real artist into the record.

The secret of Cheney superiority is revealed in the illustration above. To explain it in detail would require hours—you can hear the difference in five minutes. The tonal system of the Cheney is fittingly enshrined in period model cabinets of high artistic quality.

ERTLEY'S SUPPORT PROVES ERRATIC

Hess Auto Men Lose to Rubber Workers In Good Game at White Field.

How the teams stand in the Twilight League:

| Club | Won. | Lost. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Pharis | 5 | 2 | .714 |
| Heisey | 4 | 3 | .571 |
| Midland | 4 | 3 | .571 |
| Buckeye | 3 | 3 | .500 |

Next Week's Schedule.
Monday: Heisey vs. Pharis.
Wednesday: Buckeye vs. A. P. Hess.
Friday: Midland vs. B. & O.

Good battery operations failed to win the game for the auto men last night due to poor assistance both in the out and infield. Ertley struck out eleven men and allowed no one to walk. While ten hits is scored against him, many of these could just as well have been outs had he been given reasonable support. Two lone hits by the autoists, registered far apart in the game, did not do any serious damage.

Smith pitched air-tight ball for the Pharis team allowing two hits and two free passes to first base.

Score by innings:

| | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Pharis | 1 | 0 | 1 | 3 | 0 | 0 | 1 | — | 6 | 10 2 |
| A. P. Hess | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0 | — | 0 | 2 5 |

Batteries: Smith, Snare; Ertley, Baisch.

Struck out: Pharis 11, Hess 10.

Umpire: Murray. Time 1:30. Attendance 400.

CADDOCK NOT IN HURRY TO DEFEND HIS TITLE

Des Moines, Iowa, June 21.—Efforts to get Sergeant Earl Caddock, heavyweight wrestling champion, to return to the mat are being made by virtually every wrestling promoter in the country. A fair sized fortune in purses is assured the champion, by his manager Gene Melady, who says that already he has received offers for bouts with Stecher, Zbyszko, Ilin, Lewis, Santel, Cutler, Freberg, Kentonen, Londos and others, with guarantees totalling about $150,000.

The champion is at his home in Anita, Iowa. He announced that he will not wrestle again unless he is positive he can get into condition, which will justify the support of his backers.

"I am not in shape now," he said recently, "and I don't know when I can get in shape. I am doing my best to get back into condition and when I feel I can earn the support of my backers, especially Iowans, I will defend my title. When this will be, if ever, I don't know."

In addition to the offers from various promoters, strong efforts are being made by Caddock's friends to get him back to the mat.

This is particularly true abong the men of the 88th division, with which Caddock served overseas.

Shortly after returning home, the men in Caddock's regiment held a meeting and urged the champion to return to wrestling as quickly as possible, and promised him unlimited support.

Caddock won the title from Stecher in Omaha two years ago, defeating the Nebraskan by default after each had won a fall in a match which lasted throughout most of the night. Stecher won the first fall and Caddock the second. Stecher did not appear after the intermission and his manager announced that he had forfeited the match, though Stecher afterwards said the announcement was made through a misunderstanding.

Caddock proved to be one of the most popular champions the wrestling game has produced. A light man—for a heavyweight wrestler—he sprang into popuar favor by meeting all comers and repeatedly throwing men much larger than himself.

He went through a whirl-wind campaign after winning the title, defeating Zbyszko, Lewis, Olin and other top-notchers. His last match was in Des Moines while he was in training at Camp Dodge.

Wall Street.
New York, June 21.—Foreign developments influenced today's brief stock market session, further heavy buying proceeding on the theory that the peace treaty will soon be ratified. Gains of 2 to 8 points were made by motors and related shares, shippings rose 1 to 4, food, leather and tobacco issues 1 to 3 and coppers an average of 1 point. Steels and equipments were 1 to 3 1-2 points higher with popular specialties, and low priced rails advanced 1 to 1-2. Selling for profits caused occasional reactions but these were largely overcome later. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 750,000 shares.

The week-end session of the stock market opened with an active resumption of yesterday's general upward movement advances ranging from 1 to 5 points in the first half hour's operation. Oils, motors, shippings, and equipments were the prominent features, supplemented by numerous specialties, including rubber and food shares, leathers and textiles, tobaccos, coppers and chemical issues. U. S. Steel gained a point and rails were again dominated by Texas and Pacific and other western and southwestern issues.

Chicago Grain Review.
Chicago, June 21.—Increased confidence that the peace treaty would be promptly signed gave fresh strength today to the corn market. Opening quotations which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1 cent higher, with July 1.81 1-2 to 1.81 5-8 and Sept. 1.74 3-4 to 1.75, were followed by moderate general gains and then something of a reaction.

Oats hardened with corn. After opening a shade to 3-8 cents up, including Sept. at 69 7-8 cents to 70 1-8 cents the market went a little higher beginning to sag.

Provisions were lifted by peace news and by the advance of hog and grain. Lard was most in demand.

Thirteenth-Century Costumes.
There was very little difference in the dress of the noble and working classes, writes Mellicent Stone, in "The Bankside Costume Book for Children," referring to women's dress in the thirteenth century. Working women sometimes wore hoods, and a wimple which seems to have been in one piece and knotted on one side of the head, having long, hanging ends. Young girls wore loose hair, or had the head covered with a small piece of stuff, the hair being rolled up into projecting knobs over the ears, and the corners of the stuff twisted over these, hiding the hair. Tunics were long, but were often turned up at the bottom for about eight inches, fastened at intervals with some sort of pin, and showing a short underskirt (probably this was an under-tunic, but a petticoat will do as well). Sometimes the tunic was turned back over the knees. Shoes would be like the men's.

JUGGLER JUGGLES HIS OWN LIFE AS LATEST THRILLER

"Daredevil" Reynolds performing stunt on roof of Herald Square building, New York.

Apparently the lid is off on daredevil stunts these days. The latest addition to the thrills invented by persons who hold life cheap is shown above. "Daredevil" Jenkins, a juggler, is juggling three balls and kidding photographers while perched on a pyramid of chairs on top of a table placed on a chimney on the roof of the Herald Square building, New York. The building towers twenty-five stories above the street. Thousands of persons on the street below watched him perform the feat. They were more frightened than he.

RUSH WORK

The hoppers are to load cars on the elevated track or in trucks underneath. The ashes will be conveyed from the ovens and boiler house on the deckerville track in an underground tunnel to the elevator pit at the ash hoppers.

The boiler house will be of re-enforced concrete frame with a brick curtain wall. It is 153 by 50 feet by 28 feet high. It will have a tile roof. Construction is going forward rapidly on boiler house, and steam still. The excavating for this has all been done and the form erected. At the boiler plant there will be four 375 h. p. water tube boilers. The equipment in every department will be as up to date as it is possible to obtain and will be equipped with all the labor saving devices.

Superintendent Young stated that it was desired to obtain the best of labor, and that every effort would be made to give local men the preference. However it has been nearly impossible to secure laborers at the plant, and the progress of the work is being retarded on that account.

Everything will be electrically driven and the current will be manufactured at the plant. Twenty-five pumps will handle 300 gallons a minute.

In the engine room there will be one 300 horse power Cooper condenser, a 300 horse power Ridgeway, two 150 K. W. direct current generators and two air compressors with a capacity of 1400 cubic feet a minute.

In order to secure a sufficient water supply for the work, 12 wells have been driven, and the operation of the plant, requires 20,000 barrels daily. A cement supply reservoir will be built 100 by 200 feet and 11 feet deep. Separators 20 by 50 will catch all leaks, gathering the leakage oil and keeping it from going into the sewer.

The tankage is one of the big features of the equipment and there will be eleven run down tanks 43 by 10 foot, seven storage tanks 50 by 30 foot, two condenser tanks 15 by 30 foot and 500 tank cars. The company will use its own gasolene motive power.

Other buildings on the site will include a receiving house 24 by 40, which will be a two story building; a pump house 20 by 80; office building; laboratory, machine shops, garage, and company dwellings. Of the latter 14 will be erected at the present time for the company and there are two residences now on the land purchased by the company.

All the buildings are to be brick and all the foundations and supports are to be of concrete and steel. Each condenser compartment will use 2300 feet of 2 inch pipe and 2300 feet of 3 inch pipe for cooling surface. The weight of each compartment when completed and full of water to be about 200 tons.

Grading is now being done and ties are laid for 1000 feet of track, connecting with the Pennsylvania, B & O., and T. & O. C. railroads. Four cars of equipment are being unloaded daily at the plant and within another month 25 cars a day will be placed on the plant site.

At the present time about 250 men are employed by the company at Heath and to complete the work there will be at least 400 on the payroll. The plant will start operation with about 150 men, increasing this number 250. The men work 28 days a month, and 12 months a year. The work is such as to permit of no closing down of the plant.

The construction superintendents state that the only delay in the rapid completion of the work will be the failure to obtain labor. It is expected that by next spring $2,000,000 will have been expended at the site of Heath. Further improvements and added departments will follow.

Decree is Granted.
Gertie Grubbs has been granted a decree of divorce from Wm. Grubbs and given the custody of the minor children and the plaintiff shall have for permanent alimony all the personal property of every kind, and that costs of action shall be paid by the defendant.

Government scientists have estimated that there are thousands of tons of high grade manganese in deposits discovered in the Philippines.

DIVORCE CASE COMES ON VENUE CHANGE

For the first time within the history of the probate court a divorce petition has been sent to the local court from another county on a change of venue.

Clemie J. Lones filed her petition for a divorce from Dora J. Lones, the parties being married at Thornville, Perry county, August 28, 1881. They are the parents of eight children, four of whom are minors.

The petition is most sensational and charges the defendant with a list of abuses sometimes found in fiction, chief of which is that her husband weaned away their children's affection by telling them that he would disinherit them unless they obeyed him, and ordered them to strike and abuse her and spit in her face. She alleges that he would not provide for her and that she was compelled to live in an open log house and was without fuel the most of the time even in winter, and that as a consequence of his abuse she is a broken, aged woman without money or any means of support, and this in face of the fact that her husband is worth $70,000, being the owner of a farm of 265 acres.

The husband, Dora Lones, has filed an answer and cross petition denying hi swife's allegations and charging her with cruelty and abuse.

Says Wife Used Broom.
Claiming that his wife interfered with his business and caused him to lose his position as janitor in a church, Harlan H. Goodin has filed a petition in common pleas court against Josephine Goodin.

The petition states that they were married in June, 1917, and that ever since the marriage she has been cross and nagging and interfering with him at his place of work, as a consequence of which he lost a good position as janitor of a church.

Goodin also claims that the defendant put tacks, nails and spikes in front of his garage to puncture his automobile tires and that on June 7 last she hit him over the head with a broom.

Plaintiff claims that he has reason to fear unless restrained by the court, that the defendant will do him bodily harm and destroy his property. He asks for a divorce and all relief to which he may be entitled. Judge Fulton issued a temporary restraining order.

Wife Charges Cruelty.
Charging that eight months after her marriage on Nov. 30, 1916, she went to work at the Yaus cigar factory and has ever since worked and paid all her wages to her husband, or upon the household bills, Mary C. Gilmore has filed a petition for divorce against Garner H. Gilmore.

She alleges in the petition that defendant has hoarded his wages and has invested in a large five passenger touring car costing $1,000 against her will; that he has been guilty of extreme cruelty and used abusive language and told her she was crazy and had no brains.

Plaintiff also states that she believes defendant to be intimate with other women, that a short time ago he wrote a note to another woman requesting that she take a ride with him in his new automobile; that he has ordered her out of the house and told her to go to h—l. She asks the court to award her a divorce and the household goods as alimony.

Cause Settled.
In the case of Jackson T. Myers against Mary E. Myers, the journal entry shows that the cause has been settled and dismissed without record and the costs paid.

NERVY ENGINEER FOILS ROBBERS; PREVENTS WRECK

Cincinnati, June 21.—A nervy engineer on the Baltimore and Ohio train No. 57, Detroit to Cincinnati, foiled an attempted train robbery near Lima, O., early today as well as prevented what appeared sure to be a bad wreck if he had obeyed the orders of the holdup men, according to statements of train crew and passengers on arrival here today. The train was preparing to back up on a siding near Lima to allow train No. 58, Cincinnati to Detroit, to pass. Four men who were in hiding crept out and uncoupled the train from the locomotive. But the holdup men failed to notice the airbrake coupling. They demanded that the engineer pull his engine away from there. The engineer refused but did put on steam enough to give the train a jerk, the air coupling standing the pull. The train crew knowing that No. 58 had not passed, rushed out of the train when it began to move and drove off the bandits with revolvers.

The express car was directly behind the engine and would probably have been looted, while had the engine pulled away it would have been directly in the way of No. 58, which came through not five minutes after the bandits had disappeared into the woods and the engineer had backed his train onto the siding.

AMUSEMENTS

man frailty and it's called "Her Code of Honor." The story:

Helen is a struggling artist in the Latin Quarter of Paris and has for an adoring neighbor Tom Davis, a young American who, too, is an artist. Helen, however, favors Jacques, a young business man, and rejects Tom's pleading, telling him she is already engaged to Jacques. Being told that the latter already has a wife, Helen investigates, and stumbles upon Jacques little son. Helen again puts aside Tom's repeated offer, for she has now realized that the pledge she has unwisely given to Love must soon be known to all. With the coming of the infant Alice, Helen, the mother, passes out with the dying request that the letter she now gives to Tom be handed to the child should she grow up and be about to marry. This trust Tom accepts with the child, and soon inheriting an estate in his own country, returns to America, where he brings Alice up in elegance and comfort.

The comedy, "The Village Chestnut," will be shown at this house in connection with the above Monday only.

"The Parisian Tigress."

"The Parisian Tigress," the latest Metro play in which Viola Dana, the clever little star appears, comes to the Alhambra tomorrow, Sunday.

The play is a powerful romance of the Parisian underworld and Miss Dana is seen in the role of Jeanne, a dancer in the cafes of the Latin Quarter, who lives in constant fear of a young Apache with whom she dances. An old roue sees her and bargains for her with Jacque. To escape this new horror she runs away, only to find herself in the clutches of a scheming artist who uses her as the means to defraud his friend.

The character of the play has a sinister touch which is cleverly lightened by delightful bits of original comedy and also by a beautiful romance which comes into the life of the little girl of the gutter. The many strong situations make the play one which stands out as an arresting achievement in screen artistry. Special added features are also to be seen.

GRAND.
Today.

Driven to close quarters and fleeing for their lives Billy Duncan, Edith Johnson and their party of treasure seekers slip over the edge of the crater of a huge volcano and are sliding into the mass of molten lava, at the bottom, when they are saved by a sapling. They crawl back to the top of the crater and take desperate chances in leaping off a cliff into the ocean, strike a quicksand bar and are slowly being dragged down to their death, when the tide sweeps in and washes them to solid ground. Such is the story of the 13th episode of the "Man of Might" at the Grand today. In addition is being shown two splendid comedies, Larry Semon in "Scamps and Scandal", and Lloyd, Daniels and Pollard in "Young Mr. Jazz."

Sunday and Monday.

On Sunday afternoon and evening at the Grand theatre there will be shown a corking good wild west picture "The Border Raiders", with George Larkin and Betty Compson in the leading roles. There is plenty of real action in this picture and if you like this style you will be well repaid for visiting the Grand, which is electrically cooled. In addition there will be shown Ruth Roland in the seventh episode of "The Tiger's Trail." Also "Fatty" Arbuckle in his latest comedy. Monday will be shown "The Border Raiders" and "Fatty" Arbuckle.

GEM.
Monday.

The story of a patriotic young American who, together with several veterans of the Civil War rescues the whole township from an impending disaster and the perils of a strike at the mines, "The Spirit of '17" furnishes clever young Jack Pickford (brother of our Mary) with a screen success which brings out his very best work. Written by Judge Willis Brown of the Chicago Juvenile Court, arranged for the screen by Julia Crawford Ivers, "The Spirit of '17" was directed by William D. Taylor who has been responsible for many of Jack Pickford's recent Paramount successes, such as "The Varmit," "Jack and Jill," and "Tom Sawyer." "The Spirit of '17 will appear at the Gem theatre, Monday.

A POLISHED MONUMENT.

If you want a polished memorial you should assure yourself that the polish will remain in perfect condition.

The polishing of granite by the use of an abrasive upon the granite surface does not penetrate to a smooth surface, the grain of the stone is left open for the elements to destroy the life of the granite, although it looks well for months after the monument is erected and paid for.

Scientific knowledge and practical experience only, will produce the work that will stand the test of years. Do not let your work until you have seen and talked to the owners of Newark monuments polished by the slower process that guarantees permanent satisfaction.

DECAYED TEETH RESPONSIBLE FOR MANY SICKNESSES

The cavities of decaying teeth are favorite hiding and breeding places for disease germs. From the mouth these germs pass into the stomach and through the process of digestion are transmitted into the blood. Result—sickness, doctor bills and sometimes death.

Not only that, but aching molars mean improperly chewed foods, weakened stomachs, poorly nourished systems and the train of ills that are sure to follow.

Better be on the safe side by having your teeth treated at once.
